recollection of the standard wanted as an attroppies which lave in the fact of the last in the same for the last in the same for the last in the same for the sam ded against these at u still prefer to support al friends, seek for e advocates for county ote for them; and rathn take to your confiwho prefer the interest that of their constito your attachments for pport those who are the f your rights. This is course will for ever e who have been conwling out against the ough;" and when that desirable, then let our al struggles be revived. and wife let us unite who shall interpose to ur rights, and when we ed a victory over them, icker as much as we he "Americans" has inmany very absurd and tions of the federalists of This was done to excite ation, so that although oved of the votes of the the late house of delethat you should vote in r, in preference to genare federalists, and who you as to the necessity ng the county interest. ges the federal party with in lessening the states it still most unfortunately gn, refers to no expendiove his assertion. It is etted that in a reply of a full developement canade of all the specific ewing the causes of the of the state's revenue; is conceived that enough nfolded to shew that it iginated from measures I by the federal party, here any wasteful prodiits disbursements. About 1800, a very heavy debt state was received from ery of England, and the r executive of our state its patronage, by rewardwould have left the treasury visa dollar. Let those who loss and their country, reflect as wicked attempt at deception. If the federalists were opposed by they sought from the national pyernment the defence which had a constitutional right to keep from it, and they resisted they make a year advected by ate judge Nicholson, esq. to him a most unheard of is inconsiderable agency this fund under the cone state, which directed its t in the most productive ice the revenue of the state reased, without any credit mous expenditures advocated by friends of Baltimore, and 6 to the men then in power, rincipal had been secured ency of their predecessors, It is now to be seen if they or shew the account current so car g this rapid accumulation tate revenue for twelve as to preclude the supposite e democratic administraimprovident management pted no measure to better tion of their constituents. icr who had fought the batthe sum of $ 49,560. By the revolution, who approachand proceedings of the last, page 57, it appears from the doors with tottering steps, r bread, was rejected with communication of the govern cold-blooded indifference. anthropist who pressed the ment of poor schools, was visionary enthusiast and a ue; and the money of the suffered, like the gold of r, to be productive of no tion of the condition of whom it belonged. From democratic party in the re were urging the general

ent to a war with Great and it is not now recollect-alone is anticles, to atoms for the control of the fairly accounted for the fairly accounted for the the legislature of the statementh of May. He, on Micromunicated to them his tion to the secretary of protection to be afforded state. His reply particle evasive and jesuistical temperatures administration of the trous administration of the partment. The legislature gentrusted to their hands. done specific act of improper iditure is stated by the "Ainehe says, that the late gene-Winder drew money, as comder in chief, which he ought not ave done. It was to have been ected that this charge would not been repeated, after it was wa, that in point of operation on partment. The legislature they proceeded to any special propriations for defente time a mission to Washington the obtain a categorical prorevenue, it was productive of no to the state, as the United drawn by general Winder, and regard to Canorality and its formity to usage and principle, to obtain a categorical users to the agency of the manual vernment in defence of tis de This mission was as unproduct ad, in the liquidation of our ms, been admitted by the war as the governor's communication artment. Thus a reference to and no intelligence could bed ed as to the aid to be expected the national government. The port of the honourable naving Martin and Dorsey detailing the events, is dated May 25, 1812. ments prove every assertion of American" untrue. There is, ever, an allusion of his which true; the treasury, from these must be supplied. With this may be found in the votes and ceedings of that year. In this dition, the whole legislature of wledge staring them in their , why did they not unite in it their duty to make appropriate ing into the vaults of the state and authorise the means of de sury, the monies which Baltifor the state. Then it was and e has and will continue to retill then were the resolutions at unless you send to the legislarising loans, the purchasing arms, and the employment of military of this state against common enemy, passed. In there was a little difference bette to preserve yourselves by the the two parties in the extent of sum to be appropriated, and he rcise, on the first Monday in ober, of your elective franchise, means of resistance that week to yield yourselves up to the provided. The democrats was lance of men, whose interest is barges to be built, and region raised, at the expense of the state unfrequently opposed to yours. and these to be free offering by who have not the same continued rest as yourselves, in the faithadministration of public affairs. assurance or stipulation that to should be applied to the security. A Friend to the People. the Maryland sea-board!!! Yet profligate and unprincipled of party, dare to charge their pairs party, dare to charge their part enemies with an unnecessary prodigal expenditure of the part revenue, when they rejected to mous expenditures, advised by advocates of the war, and un would have left the treasury vides TO THE MITHE MARYLAND REPUBLICAN. Mutatis Mutandis.

EDERAL REPUBLICANS OF THE

STATE OF MARYLAND. t is known to you that every d and every artifice that ingeniprofligacy could invent, have for years been practised on the ple of this state by the leaders of democratic party to maintain their endency in its councils. It is known to you, that to secure unholy triumph of democracy at ensuing election, every means, ever depraved, every artifice, ver corrupt, will again be tised to prevent a fair and contional expression of the public

It then imperiously behaves to guard against fraud in every sinable shape. Look at the conof the democratic party in the telection in 1815 & the Baltimore tion in 1790, when there was a geticket for members of congress, ben thro' fraudic artishe obtained gave votes to drown the voice Il the state beside, and say if will again be swindled out of r dearest rights, without an ofwhile it is in your power, to erve them. Every precautionstep should be taken to prevent. ct and expose fraud. It is a ciple upon which our republican tutions are founded "that all ernment of right originates from people, is founded in compact and instituted solely for the of the whole;" when therefore e a faction, a small and inconrable part of the people of this attempting by the practice of fices, bottonicip only on fraud political villaily, to wrest from majority of the people the right elf government, it is our priviit is a duty enjoined upon us he imputable laws of our cre-from the general government grounds recognized in the assistion of the state's expendium, sum of $292,819; that the magnitude of the other expenses incum, her during the war, in the part of arms, powder, ball, can boxes, knapsacks, and other ary articles, and now belong the state, the sum of $150,000. then to a war with Great and it is not now recollect they adopted one act designate within the reach of the at the hour of danger, the federalists, deeming that the federalists, deeming that the federalists, deeming that the state, from their local in would suffer adopted evenuable expedient to avert a y which brought on the ruin tress of so many of us. In war was declared, and the of Maryland returned to the federalists of Maryland returned to the federalists of Maryland. The federalists of Maryland after having weather that the federalists of Maryland. The federalists of Maryland after having weather that the federalists of Maryland. The federalists of Maryland after having weather that t to take every constitutional toprotect and preserve for oures and our posterity. the enjoyts of rights sealed by the blood ir revolutionary fathers .- With view therefore, the following ositions are respectfully, but earnestly urged on the attenof the federal republicans thro'-

The "American" says, from ill 1819. the federalists

at vine o'clock in the morning, and by no means to leave them during the day. To see they are opened at that lour if no judges attend, or if the attend and refuse to perform the attend and refuse to perform the attend and refuse to perform the attending magistrate hold the elections and if there he no magistrate the country at Manchester, as the on, and if there be no magistrate attending, that the people present elect judges for the day to see that they with the clerks qualify according to law, to see particularly that there be no tickets fraudulently placed in the ballot boxes before the polls are open, and to guard narrowly against it during the day; to see that no person from an adjoining county, and no person who wants age, residence or any other lawful qualification is permitted to vote without the necessary objections being stated, and every lawful means being used to prevent his voting; if handbill, under the signature such person be permitted to vote, American" untrue. There is, that a minute of the circumstance be taken in a book prepared for the purpose, with the person's name, his place of residence, and the reasons assigned by the judges for rejecting the vote. 5th. That it be the duty of said committees to see that all persons are permitted to vote who are lawfully entitled to that privilege, if counties. A candid appeal has a made to your pariotism, and our intelligence. It is now with the votes of any be rejected without rejected, with an affidavit of the candidate for whom he intended to have voted. 6th. That it be the duty of the committees to be sedulously watch-ful that no presons from adjoining counties, states or districts be permitted to vote. 7th. That it be a duty of said committee to attend at the counting of the votes which must be done in public; to see that no double ballots are counted and that the number of tickets tally with the enumeration, and with the number of names on the books of polls. They ought to be particular in counting for themselves, and to watch closely that the persons appointed to draw the tickets out of the box on counting them, exercise no fraud by putting tickets in or separating in the box double tickets that may have been put in by voters. None such are to be counted if discovered.

8th. That it be a duty of said committee to notice in proper form the number of votes given for each candidate in each district.

9th. That it be made the duty of mittee to attend at the place of holding the county court of the second day after the election to see that the presiding judges make the proper return of the persons elected by made the capture of the leaders of the meeting, charged the pressing crowd on their return, five of whom were killed, and nearly 100 were wounded by being trampled on.

The resolution of the troops apone or more of each district commajority of votes, and to cast up the number themselves, including all federal votes illegally rejected, and excluding all democratic votes illegally received by the district judges. And 10th. If it should in any instance be found that democrats are returned where federalists are elected by a majority of votes thus estimated, or any other fraud practised to prevent the federal candidates elected from taking their seats, let certificates stating and proving the fact, be made out under oath of said committee, and given to each candidate having such majority, with instructions to him to repair to the City of Annapolis with all his proofs and documents, on the meeting of the le-gislature, there to claim his seat as a representative of the people of his

New York, Sept. 20. FOREIGN NEWS. From the Cork Morning Intelligen

cer of Aug. 21. Meeting at Manchester on Mon day last Disastrous and important consequenties of it Through the at importance to present denso sal, this frebrand, of sedition the't stated; but the letters from Man, the country, at Manchester, as the common place of rendezvous, at the appointed time on Monday. The appointed time on Monday. The approach of the different bodies of the deluded populace, of which it was ultimately constituted, was made with all manner of outward display, in order to impose forbearance on the civil authorities. Banners and bands of music added their effect to the march of the different effect to the march of the different division of the Reformers which was conducted with something like military precision. Among the former were several bearing the following inscriptions and devices: Let us der like men, and not be sold as slaves! No Corn Laws. Annual Parliaments, and Universal Suffrage! Major Cartwright's Bill. The Rose, supported on each side by the Signerock and Thistle, with two thirds united, and the word Uniohunder them. word Union under them. Three different Flags, bearing the Cap of Liberty on the Flog Staff.

Equal Representation of Death!
Taxation, with False Representation, is unjust and syrannical."
Women in considerable numbers, were united in these processions, and advances with them to the general place of meeting in Peter's square. One female, more abominable and desperate than the rest, bore a bannel, in the particular cirle which thended Hunt to the point where he was to act his part. When every thing of preliminary arrangement was concluded, Hunt with his immediate party, mounted a platform prepared for their reception, from whence he proceeded to address the multitude. His harangue was suffered to go on for one hour, until the Rioc Act had been read in due form, and then he was inter-rupted by a body of cavalry cting under the orders of the civil magis trates, who made their way through the mob to the platform, and took him and his party (all of whom, it is to be supposed, were ready made orators) prisoners, and destroyed the structure on which they had taken their stations. Some of the standard bearers, the women among them, did not part with their seditious emblems until force compelled them to it. The Dragoons having made the capture of the leaders of pears to have dispersed the mob for the moment; but towards evening they collected in great numbers and were committing several outrages, when they were fired upon by the 88th Foot, (Connaught Rangers,) and had four men killed. The military, notwithstanding this example, became objects of popular fury, and were assailed with various mis-siles. In this conflict one dragoon was killed, and some others wound-

At this period of the day, the general contusion was such as to ender it difficult to give an accurate scription of what was going forward. The scene was too dangerous to be visited, for the mere purpose of communicating the events hat might take place; and therefore, the accounts which have reached this quarter cannot enter into any thing like a minute description of passing occurrences. It is perhaps, the worst feature of the Manchester intelligence, that the mob was not deterred by what passed on Mondage from pursuing the system of outrage and commo-London parters, we have had all the preparations which Hunt, and his party, though the cessary for the effectual getting up of the meeting of Manchester of Monday last. Have the prosecution of any further meathe state; it on no account to let. Manchester on Monday last. Have the prosecution of any interesting to more ing pronounced his own opinion of sures of violence on Monday, more than part or section be omit; ing pronounced his own opinion of sures of violence on Monday, more than part is deepled of the prosecution of sures of violence on Monday, more than part is deepled of the prosecution of sures of violence on Monday, more than part of the prosecution of sures of violence on Monday, more than part of the prosecution of sures of violence on Monday, more than part of the prosecution of sures of violence on Monday, more than part of the prosecution of any interest of violence on Monday, more than part of the prosecution of any interest of violence on Monday, more than part of the prosecution of sures of violence on Monday, more than part of the prosecution of the prosecutio for 20 miles.

There is every reason to fear that the military will be obliged to act in a way which every friend to humanity will deplore for the forbearance they have about has been tried to the extremer At half past nine o'clock, when this paper went to press, we were in possession of little more than rumour—the result can only be given in a second editi-

A second edition of the same paper mentions:

Except the riot at the New Cross before mentioned at which 2 men were shot, and taken to the infirm ary, where one of them had a leg taken off, the night was passed in comparative peace. Indeed, in the centre of the town, there was almost an uncommon silence, only broken by the distant trampling of the patroling cavalry.

The reports of numbers killed at that unusually riotous place, the New Cross, in the tumult last night. are so vague and contradictory, that we refrain to repeat them.

Mr. Magruder declines serving any longer as a Member of Corporation.

DISNEY & HALL, MERCHANT TAILORS,

Having commenced business in the room fortherly occupied by Mr. William Well as a dry good store in Church street, politely solicit a portion of the public choouragement, which should they receive, no effort on their part shall be wanting satisfactorily to requite. They will nake up Goods in the most fashionable style, or in any manner that their petrons may order, and pledge themselves that their work shall be well done. They have on hand and will dispose of on the most accompany will dispose of on the most accompany. and will dispose of on the most accom modating terms, a variety of Goods suitable for the present and doming season. Among them the following-Best London blue and black cloths,

Best London brown, green, and olive ditto. Dark and light mixtures, Best London double milled blue and black cassimeres, Ditto fashionable light, and mixtures.

Ditto Buff, Florentines, & white Mar-Olive Cord,

Fashionable Toilinette Vestings of the latest importation. Likewise some of Nelson's first quality

PATENT SUSPENDERS, Which will be sold at a very reduced Sept. 30.

Lands for Sale.

I will sell on a credit of one year, en, at Vendue, at Boswell's Tavern, in the town of Nottingham, on Patuzent, at 11 o'clock, AM. on the second Monday in November next, if fair, if not the next fair day,

The following Tracts of Land:

Londonderry, near the brick church, about six miles from Nottingham, containing 241 acres.
Reed's Swamp, a mile or two fur ther, 200 acres. Cool Spring, in the same neighbourhood, 21 acres. Pheasant Hills, about four miles from Nottingham, 181 acres. Scotchman's Hole, nearly opposite Mount Calvert, on the Patuxent, 100

Fifty Acres in St. Mary's, adjoining the farm of Captain John Jackson.

And on the third Monday of said November, at 11 o'clock, AM. at Samuel Cole's auction room, in the city of Baltimore, Planter's Paradise, con taining 400 acres, on the waters of Back and Middle rivers, about 10 miles from

The titles good, and any information which may be required, respecting those Lands, will be cheerfully given by me.

W. G. D. Worthington, Baltimore city.

Sept. 20.

Taken up.

On Sandy Point, last Thursday, a BATTEAU, 28 feet in length; 7 feet in width at the stern, and 2 feet deep; nearly new. The owner, on applicati on to me, paying charges, and proving property, can have her again.

Sandy Pon Loopt 30.

Be virtus of an order of the as plans soon will enter tak Publication on Thursday the latting the ber next it fair I not the next falcor thereafter, [Sunday excepted), at the residence of William Plater, All the bersonal estate of Eschiel Simmona; late of the aforesaid county, deceased, consisting of one Nagro, Woman, and two children, three head of Cattle and one horses. Terms of sale, for all sains under-twenty dollars, the cash to be credit of six months will be given. Bond and approved security will be required, with interest from the day of sale.

ACHSAH SIMMONS, Adm'r. Sept. 30.

Notice is hereby given:

That the subscribers hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne Arus del county, letters testamentary on the personal patate of William Shiples. Sen. late of the aforesaid county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same. with the vouchers thereof, to the subscribers, and those indebted to said estate to make immediate payment.

Ettus S. pley,
William Sellman, Ex'rs.
Sept 30. Sw.

Planter's Bank of Prince-George's County.

September 23d, 1819. The Board of Directors, having this lay declared a dividend for the year, ending the 24th inst. at the rate of four per cent per annum, the same will be paid to the stockholders, or their representatives, on or after the 30th instant, upon personal application. by power of attorney, or upon simple order, specifying that it is for the dividend.

TRUEMAN TYLER, Cash.
Sept. 30.

3w.

State of Marykand, sc. Anne-Arundel County, Orphans Court September 28, 1869.

On application by petition of Henry Maynadier, administrator of William Bowser, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said de-ceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligencer.

JNO, GASSAWAY Reg. Wills,
A. A. County.

Notice is hereby given.

That the subscriber of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of William Bowser, late of Anne-Arundel county, de ceased. All persons havin claims so gainst the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 13th day of November next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 28th day of Sentember, 1819.

Henry Maynadier, Almr.

State of Maryland, sc. Anne Arundel County, Orphans Court September 28, 1819.

On application by petition of James Williams and Lewis Neth, Jun. executors of the last will and testament of James Williams, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased; it is ordered that they give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same he published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in the Maryland Gazette and Pol deal Intelligencer.

INO. GASSAWAY, Reg. Wills

A. A. County.

Notice is hereby given.

That the subscribers of Anne Aruna del county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of James Williams. late of Anne Arundel county, deceased All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscribers, at or before the 13th day of November next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit, of the said estate. Given under our hands this 28th day of September, 1819.

James Williams, Lewis Neth, Jun-

Ex'rs.

FOR SALE,

A genteel Coaches, in good repair, and a handsome pair of sprightly bay Horses, very gentles and excellent tra velling. The Horses will be sold with or without the Carriage.

, To Hire, by the year, A good Gardener, Shoemaker and Waiter twice are honest, sober, and healthy. Inquire at this Office.